

USS Beale DD/DDE 471 2020 Annual Reunion New Orleans, LA

Dianne Sorola, our 2020 Coordinator, is hard at work to make New Orleans one of the best reunions ever.

It will be held in the last week of September with exact dates yet to be determined. October 1st marks the beginning of the tourist season and much higher rates.

She is considering a new hotel located in the heart of the French Quarter in Old New Orleans. Virtually everything will be within short walking distance to make it easier on our aging crew.

Nearby restaurants will include "Cafe du Monde", K-Paul's, Emeril's and many others featuring Cajun and French cuisine.

And, music will fill the air – "When the Saints come Marching in", "Jambalaya" and too many others to mention.

A planned venue will be the National WWII Museum located in the Central Business District. It is rated as New Orleans' best! You can check it out at <https://www.nationalww2museum.org>
